BLUFFING OFFICERS

Pennequin and Frew Expected to Return if Hepburn Directs the Probe

By the Associated Press State Wire. OKMULGEE, Nov. 2.—A raid on a building in the suburbs of Okmulgee leased last year as a detention hospital during the smallpox epidemic was made this afternoon by Sheriff Frank Powers and members of the Okmulgee police force in a search for persons injured in the shooting affair at Spelter City Sunday night, reports to have been taken there.

Search proved fruitless, a negro suffering from a gunshot wound being the only person in the building. Officers are following every clue possible in an endeavor to locate Homer Pennequin and George Frew, participants in the fight, thought to have been wounded, and Sheriff Powers says that he is confident he will locate them.

That Pennequin and Frew, or their friends, may have been attempting to throw out a smoke screen in sending the officers word yesterday that they would go to Henryetta and surrender when feeling dies down, was the belief expressed today.

It was pointed out that the declaration of Pennequin and Frew's intention to return only came after it was announced that County Attorney James Hepburn would take part in the investigation.

500 PATRONS ARE EXPECTED

Central High Association Will Meet in School Cafeteria Wednesday.

Approximately five hundred people are expected at luncheon the Central high school Patron-Teachers' association will hold in the high school cafeteria next Wednesday. The luncheon at 1 o'clock will be followed by a short program of music and talks.

Agenda items with the high school, its departments, directors and routine is the primary aim of the luncheon. Principal Marie C. Frantz will talk on the development of the high school in the last seven years, and when the guests tour the building a little later the class and department directors will act as guides.

The same food will be served the members of the association that is served the children. Miss Clara Kimble, head of the economic department said yesterday. The only difference will be that the guests will not be required to follow cafeteria style but will be served by the girls of the cooking classes.

PLAN APPROVED BY MINISTERS

Series of Afternoon Organ Recitals Will Be Held Sundays.

Approval of the plan of Tulsa members of the Eastern Oklahoma chapter, American Guild of Organists, to give a series of Sunday afternoon organ recitals during the winter and spring was voted by the ministerial alliance this week and the series will commence November 12. The programs will be held fortnightly in turn in the different local churches having organs and will be presided over by the church organist. There will not be more than two recitals in each church.

The object of staging the recitals and sacred concerts will be to cultivate and promote an interest in better music and to provide a form of wholesome entertainment possessing educational value, according to John Knowles Weaver, dean of the eastern Oklahoma chapter. Weaver, assisted by Miss Inogene Eberly will provide the opening program in the University of Tulsa auditorium November 12. Tulsa was first introduced to public weekly organ recitals by Ernest Francis Stinson, former organist at the First Christian church and a noted musician and composer.

Ramsey Heads Good Roaders.

Special to The World. ARDMORE, Nov. 2.—G. A. Ramsey has been elected president of the Ardmore Good Roaders' congress, following a meeting of representatives of the various civic organizations of this city. Roy Shores was elected secretary.

CHOCTAW BANK IS CLOSED BY STATE

Forged Accounts Laid at Doors of Officials by the Examiners

By the Associated Press State Wire. OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 2.—The State bank of Choctaw at Choctaw, a small town, 13 miles east of here, was closed today by order of Roy Walcott, state bank examiner, and an information charging forgery was filed in county court here against George M. Smith, cashier.

Smith is specifically charged with a forgery amounting to $437. Commissioner Walcott, in announcing the closing of the bank, said that this was the only discrepancy found in Smith's accounts after a hurried examination, but that the investigation was proceeding.

According to J. O. Dickey, examiner for the state banking department, who is in charge of the bank, Smith left the bank yesterday morning with the statement that he intended to go to the country to look at a horse which was for sale. Dickey said that he had not been seen since.

The examiner found a tin box in the vault in which were notes to the approximate value of $75,000.

The notes were wrapped in a paper which bore the inscription: "Every man who has shown us the right spirit—note is out of case."

The notation was signed "George M. Smith."

Commissioner Walcott said that he and Examiner Dickey were attempting to determine the meaning

Pan of Hot Grease Kept Corsicana Man From Small Fortune

Special to The World. CORSICANA, Texas, Nov. 2.—Oyster dealers of Corsicana are looking forward to a big business boom as a result of an incident which occurred last night and which came near bringing a small fortune to a purchaser of oysters. This purchaser missed the fortune only by a small painful boiling grease.

Here is the story:

A man entered an oyster market and purchased a dozen oysters, which he took home and had his wife fry for the night meal. When the appetizing dish had been set on the table, the man noticed something that resembled a rock about one inch long and pear shape. He took it to a local jeweler and was told that the find was a pearl of extraordinary size, and it had not been dipped into the hot grease would have been worth between $2,000 and $10,000, depending on the luster.

FINDS WOLF IN HIS HENHOUSE

McAlester Citizen Kills Big Marauder After It Killed Fowls

Special to The World. MALESTER, Nov. 2.—"Wolves in the heart of the city," would read to those in the settled areas like a "tale of the wild," but it occurred here.

When J. Crouch of the Third ward heard a disturbance in his "henhouse," he called his "trustworthy" and sallied forth to investigate. He found large fat hens scattered about the premises in a more or less mutilated condition. Upon further research he discovered, with his back to the wire fence, what appeared to be a large dog, and turned loose both barrels in that direction. The animal was laid low and proved to be a large gray wolf that had strayed from the country. It had made depredations upon his fowls to the number of a dozen. The bounty paid by the county for a wolf scalp is only $2.50, while the loss of 12 good layers is several times that sum.

According to reports of hunters, there are large numbers of wolves about the outskirts of the town. Does, it is said, often chase them from the city waterholes. The county clerk's records show that many bounties are paid for scalps each year.

RUSHING A NEW LINE

Santa Fe's Branch Into Pawhuska to Be Completed by December 10, So Officials Announce.

Special to The World. PAWUSKA, Nov. 2.—The Santa Fe railway building into Pawhuska from Owen expects to have steel laid into this city by December 10. The grade is completed the entire way through to Owen and the laying of steel is within 20 miles of Pawhuska. Work on the terminal and yards is going on here and every indication is that the road will be actively functioning by the first of the year.

Plans are afoot by the chamber of commerce looking to the making of Pawhuska a site for the roundhouse and shops of the Santa Fe. Plans are also afoot to have the road completed on through this city to Fairfax connecting with the main Kansas-Texas lines of the Santa Fe at that point.

New Note in World History.

At the regular Sabbath evening service at Temple Israel, Fourteenth and Chicago streets, Friday evening at 8 o'clock, Rabbi Lutz will preach on "The Ethical Note in Modern World History." This is suggested by H. G. Wells' "Outline," and Hendrick van Loon's "History of Mankind," two recent books that summarize all known history. The significance of a bird's-eye view of human history for the present approach and solution of our present-day problems, is being freshly appreciated. The Temple choir will sing the traditional Sabbath music, with special solo numbers. The public is cordially invited to all temple services.

COURT INQUIRY SUMMONS 35 MEN

Construction Work on the Spur of Northeast Oklahoma Line Begins

Special to The World. MIAMI, Nov. 2.—To forestall a general exodus of Ottawa county residents who may assist in bringing a number of alleged criminals into court County Attorney O. H. Mason has caused to be issued about 25 subpoenas for that many persons who will testify in a court of inquiry on November 11.

Yesterday the county attorney let it be known that a grand jury had been summoned for about the same date and that witnesses summoned for the court of inquiry might be persuaded to assist the grand jury in reaching some judgments. Previously when it became known that a grand jury was to be called there was a quick departure of many who would have been inclined to appear before the inquisitorial body, Mr. Mason said.

Work is progressing rapidly on the Fisher-Columbus extension of the Northeast Oklahoma railroad. It was stated today by H. B. Cobban, general manager. Thirteen carloads of heavy steel rails for the new road arrived today. A total of 27 carloads have been ordered for the extension.

CLUB NAMES THREE CHAIRMEN

Tulsa Business Women Embusened Over Prospects for the Year.

Three of the chairmen who will head the work of the Tulsa Business Women's club during the new club year were named at the regular noonday luncheon Wednesday at Ed Woods cafe by the president, Miss Chloe Miller. Dr. Stella Holte was made finance chairman, Miss Joe Leung program chairman and Mrs. Edith Taylor publicity head. Enthusiasm for the plans for the future growth and general betterment of the club was shown.

Miss Rose Portland was presented with a bouquet of roses as an expression of appreciation for the manner in which she presided at the annual club banquet recently. Club members will hold a dinner the evening of November 5.

Teachers to Hold Session

Special to The World. PONCA CITY, Nov. 2.—An address by Thomas W. Butler, president of the Kansas state normal, will be the feature of the annual session of the Northern Oklahoma Educational association, held this year at Blackwell on November 3 and 4. The counties comprising the association are Grant, Garfield and Kay and the president is County Supt. J. C. Hoffmann of Garfield who will preside during the convention. A new curriculum for high schools is another important feature on the program.

BOND JUMPER IS RELEASED

Months Accused of Uttering False Expense Account to Nation.

WICHITA, Kan., Nov. 2.—James P. Momb, who has been confined in the Wichita jail for the past week on orders of J. C. Shearman, United States commissioner, for alleged forfeiture of his bond for appearance in federal court at Ardmore, Okla., was released late yesterday on $3,000 bond. Momb is charged in a federal indictment with presenting a "false, fictitious and fraudulent" expense account while in the government's employ as an internal revenue agent at Ardmore on May 4, 1931.

PRAIRIE SUED BY STATE OF KANSAS

Sunflower Action Similar to That Begun in Bartlesville

Special to The World. BARTLESVILLE, Nov. 2.—The Prairie Pine Lumber company and the Prairie Oil & Gas Co. have been made defendants in a suit in Montgomery county, Kansas, similar to that filed in Washington county by Tom Bennett, county assessor.

though the amount in this county under controversy is around $400,000 in taxes it is twice that in Montgomery county.

The Kansas attorney-general has issued an order to the county assessor to collect back taxes for five years which carries with it double tax on all delinquent taxes charged against the company.

The state is demanding the collection of taxes on the assessed value of more than 23,000,000 barrels of oil which the company had in its tanks March 1 of each of the last five years.

What I Have Learned in 47 Years Practice

I HAVE been watching the results of constipation for 47 years, since I began the practice of medicine back in 1875. I am now 83 years old, and though from time to time the medical profession makes some wonderfully interesting experiments and tests, the fundamentals of cause and relief in this particular ailment are unchanged.

But the people take greater interest today in their health, in diet, exercise and the drinking of water. Constipation, however, will occur from time to time no matter how one tries to avoid it. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. I believe in prevention as close to nature as possible, hence my remedy for constipation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It is made of Egyptian senna and pepsin with agreeable aromatics. Children will not willingly take bitter things. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it. It does not gripe. Thousands of mothers have written me to that effect.

Over 10 million bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are now sold every year, and it is the most widely bought family laxative in the world. I say family laxative because all in the family can use it with safety. It is mild enough for the infant in arms, effective in the most chronic constipation of an adult. The formula is on every package.

Recently there has been a new wave of drastic physics. Calomel, a mercurial that salivates and loosens teeth, has been revived; salt waters and powders that draw needed constituents from the blood; coal tar designed in candy form that causes skin eruptions. In a practice of 47 years I have never seen any reason for their use when a medicine like Syrup Pepsin will empty the bowels just as promptly, more cleanly and gently, without griping, and without shock to the system.

Keep free from constipation! It lowers your strength 28 per cent, hardens the arteries and brings on premature old age. Do not let a day go by without a bowel movement. Do not sit and hope but go to a druggist and get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a generous-size bottle. Take a teaspoonful that night and by morning you will be well. The cost is only about a cent a dose. Use Syrup Pepsin for yourself and members of the family in constipation, biliousness, sour and crampy stomach, piles, indigestion, loss of appetite or sleep, and to break up fevers and colds. Always have a bottle in the house, and observe these three rules of health: Keep the bowels cool, the feet warm, the bowels open.

I REPEAT MY FREE OFFER
$10,000 worth of trial bottles
of Syrup Pepsin free

Last year I agreed to spend $10,000 cash for free samples of my Syrup Pepsin, and send them free and postage paid to all who asked. A tremendous mail was the result. But there must be many who did not write. I would like to get their address this time. So I now renew my offer, in remembrance of my approaching 84th birthday, and will again donate $10,000 to free samples. I am anxious to see one in every American home. Write for yours today. Simply give me your address. Send it to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 515 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois. Mine is truly a free gift; it costs the public nothing.
